If you don't have a polished, full length CD, don't worry - but you'll need to send something so we can hear what your sound is... don't be too concerned if the quality isn't as high as you'd like it to be - we can figure it out and please don't stress out about it.

The $10 submission fee is really low, and really helpful - it covers some of our costs and helps with the office materials and organizational and administrative work - but don't stress about it - if you can send it in, please do so, we can use it - but if you can't, don't worry. It's hard enough being a musician and finding places to play that appreciate your sound and the music you are trying to make and we don't want to add to that stress...

We want to help you be great and receive the kind of attention and exposure you deserve. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet musicians and make lasting professional and personal relationships.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 15, 2015 MIDNIGHT
